

← Back to home

Process Portal - Linked Documents

Documents linked to an entire process, an individual element, or a process map element can be opened directly from the additional information menu.

Select a process element, a document model element, or a process map element to display the additional information menu. Expand the Linked documents section to see all linked documents. Click a document to either open or download it (depending on your browser settings).